WHAT IS A SKILLS PROGRAMME?

A skills programme is a set or cluster of unit standards gathered or combined to form a short programme bearing credits on the National Qualifications Framework (NQF).

The skills programmes are often implemented to meet the needs of the employer to enhance employees' knowledge for a particular skill. Skills programme can culminate into a qualification when an interested learner continues to pursue the completion of the remaining unit standards. Training is offered by an accredited provider.

At the end of the training learners receive a Statement of Results. Like the Learnerships, skills programmes are implemented by employers for both employed and unemployed learners.
